PANAMA ENVOYS TO WASHINGTON REACH NEW YORK

Prepared to Negotiate a New Canal Treaty With America.

DETAILS OF REVOLUTION

Morgan & Co. to Finance Republic-President Marroquin's Appeal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Panama Railroad Steamship Company's steamer City of Washington arrived today from Colon with intelligence of the recent revolution. The steamer had flying from the foremasthead the flag of Panama and brought among her passengers the special commissioners of the new republic to negotiate a new canal treaty at Washington.

Language Mr. Teller, in presenting a number of petitions from Colorado, called attention to the fact that they did not demand Mr. Smoot's expulsion, but merely asked that the charges against him be properly investigated and appropriate action taken.

Upon a resolution introduced by Mr. Kean, the Secretary of War was directed to make a survey and prepare an establishment.

They are Dr. Manuel E. Amador, minister of finance of the new republic, and Frederico Boyd, commissioners; Carlos Arasemena, secretary, and Archibald River between Trenton, N. J., and Philodolphia. Boyd, attache. Dr. Amador is said to be the real head of the revolutionary party in Panama. Mr. Boyd was appointed because he represented the staid business interests and was known to be popular with the people.

Troops Without Commanders.

After some parley the troops went down on the pier to the British Royal Mail steamer Atrato, to embark for Cartagena. The officers of the troops had in the meantime gone to Panama, and they were without commanders. Colonel Black, with the marines, tak-ing advantage of the fact that the troops had all passed down the pler, changed the cotton bale barricades until they blocked the pier, and refused to allow the troops to come back to shore. A fund of $8,000 was collected and the troops were sent, passage paid, by Atrato to Cartagena.
